New Cottages

More cottages means more choice and we have plenty of both. Hunstanton to Mundesley and Wells to Whissonsett, large or small. We are always selective and so you can be sure that any new cottages will be of a high standard and always welcoming. Follow this to our newest property Beach House in Mundesley - it couldn't be closer to the sand!

Norfolk Music Festivals

From reggae to rock, classical to country, and grime to gospel we think Norfolk's music festivals have it covered. Just a few of the events coming up are Adam Ant at Voewood on 28th August, the superb 12 day classical North Norfolk Music Festival from the 31st August, and the inaugural Norfolk Spectacular on the 3rd & 4th September at the Norfolk Showground in Norwich.

'Bovered' by Newsletters?

We know how frustrating it is to find your inbox full of meaningless promotions and newsletters that aren't news. But equally some of our clients like to stay in touch all year round. So we try to keep our newsletters rare and meaningful and chat with our friends on Facebook every week. In fact our closest fans, the ones that 'like' us, go into a monthly draw for a £25 high street voucher.

Fresh Ingredients & Funky Flavours

Na Hansell's lifestyle cookery courses are half day demonstrations in her family kitchen at the Grange Farmhouse, near Fakenham. The courses combine the fresh ingredients of North Norfolk with the funky flavours of Na's cooking to create menus for many occasions from smart entertaining to family fuelling. There are still a few places available in September and October.

Are you a Westy or an Easty?

We are not talking about Norfolk v Cornwall, we know who wins that battle; but do you prefer the cliffs of Sheringham and Cromer in the East or the long flat sandy beaches of Brancaster and Hunstanton in the West of Norfolk? With nearly 200 cottages spanning the county there is bound to be a location to suit all tastes.
